

TRAGEDIES COME WITH A RUSH TO NAZI-PERILED AUSTRIA

Here is a view of strife-torn Vienna, the Austrian capital, where a "putsch" for control of the government by the Nazis was climaxed with the murder of Austria's "Little Giant," Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss, bringing a threat now of civil war. The business section of Vienna is on the right of the picture and the residential district on the left. And the Danube canal still winds peacefully through the enchanted city, despite the presence of armed soldiers on patrol. President Miklas, top center, battles to control the crisis. Dr. Rintelen, lower center, died in a cell today—suicide or slay?

tion of Styria, order prevails.

"The revolt in certain sections of Styria has already collapsed, thanks to the energetic action of law enforcement agencies.

"Large detachments of troops at present are marching on Liezen, Leoben and Donawitz to suppress all vestiges of revolt."

Private advices from Styria said Nazi troops in uniform were guarding many railway stations.

A few hours after he had been jailed Dr. Anton Rintelen, minister to Rome and the choice of yesterday's Nazi Putschers to succeed Dollfuss, was shot in his cell. Officials said he tried to commit suicide, but his wife denied this.

Rintelen was taken to a hospital in a critical condition. He regained consciousness long enough to scribble "I am innocent." The Nazis had falsely proclaimed over the radio yesterday that he had been named chancellor. He died shortly afterward.

General Wagner of the Austrian army, a close friend and adviser of Rintelen, was arrested at Graz.

A motor tour through districts reported in the hands of the government revealed several were still held by Nazis.

The Associated Press found Rattersburg, on the Yugoslav border which was reported at 10 a. m. to belong to the government, actually to be in the control of Nazis at noon.

The situation at Rattersburg is unusually important because of its location on the border. It is one of the towns divided by a Peace Treaty boundary and if Austrian troops should engage in heavy fighting there Yugoslavia might become involved.

Italian troops were massed on the border, ordered by Mussolini to be ready to march on short notice.

Austria was leaderless, facing the future more uncertainly than she did 20 years ago Saturday when the shot was fired that touched off the World War.

Martial law was enforced throughout Vienna and in Styria. Members of the Heimwehr, or Fascist home guard, who had fought before for the slain chancellor, were mobilized throughout the country.

VON STARHEMBERG IS STRONG MAN

Ernst Von Starhemberg, Vice-Chancellor, leader of the Heimwehr and apparently the key to the ominous situation, was speeding to Vienna by airplane from Venice. President Wilhelm Miklas also was en route to the capital. Reports were current that representatives of European powers and the Little Entente were to meet here today to discuss Austria's fate.

News that Italian soldiers were camped on the border caused alarm or reassurance—according to the viewpoint.

A group of fanatical Nazis, variously estimated at from 144 to 300, whose daring seizure of the Chancellery yesterday resulted in Dollfuss' assassination, were held under heavy guard in a military barracks.

Their guarantee of safe conduct to Germany, made by Emil Fey, former Vice-Chancellor and a Heimwehr leader, was revoked by the government when the little "gamecock chancellor" was found dead.

Dr. Kurt Schuschnigg, Minister of Social Welfare in Dollfuss' cabinet who was named Acting Chancellor by Miklas, indicated in his first official statement that policies of the Nazi victory would be carried out.

"The Chancellor is dead," he said, "but his work lives in Austria and we call the world to witness that we still in this hour are advance fighters for German culture. The Dollfuss testament remains our guiding star to the future."

ARRANGED FOR SAFE CONDUCT

The Nazi conspirators, wearing Heimwehr uniforms, swooped down on the Chancellery yesterday afternoon and, killing Dollfuss, held control of the building for six hours.

They compelled Fey to go to the balcony time and again to reassure the crowd outside, and order troops and police not to harm Nazis.

When night fell they arranged with Fey for safe conduct to the border.

Although he spoke guardedly, Dr. Schuschnigg expressed disapproval of the part Herr Rieth, Germany's Minister to Vienna, played in arranging safe conduct for the perpetrators of the putsch.

(Berlin dispatches said Rieth had been recalled because of his participation in these negotiations.)

The semi-official Reichspost, attacking the minister said: "To Minister Rieth fell the task unexampled in history of negotiating with criminals who had killed the chancellor of a German state for their admission into Germany."

"This demand for the Putschists to be brought across the German border gives a clear indication of who planned and organized this day."

President Miklas was motoring from Velden, Carinthia, where he has been on a vacation.

gram to Prince Von Starhemberg, Vice-Chancellor of Austria, expressing his grief over the death of Chancellor Dollfuss, whose friendship, he said, was precious to him. Then he added:

"The independence of Austria, for which he died, will be all the more ardently defended by Italy."

Mussolini is expected to arrive here early this afternoon and at once take command in an international situation, perhaps the most serious since the World War.

Two Italian army corps moved up to the Austro-Italian frontier today from Bolzano and Udine.

Considerable secrecy was maintained concerning their ultimate positions. The corps were fully equipped on a war basis. A third army corps now with headquarters at Trieste also has been ordered ready to move. If this third army corps goes to the border it will bring the total of Italian troops stationed there to 50,000.

It is understood that the foreign office is already in active communication with Great Britain and France.

From the seaside resort of Riccione the premier had already set the wheels of Italy's military machine moving last night. Troops are hurrying toward the Austrian frontier along the Alps and garrisons in northern Italy are making ready to cross the Austrian border at a few hours' notice while the third naval squadron is steaming up the North Adriatic.

If the great powers heed Austria's reported plea for intervention to prevent the Nazis from seizing power Italy is expected to bear the brunt of the military effort.

AUSTRIA IN SAME CONDITION AT START OF WORLD WAR

Charles L. Flick, Berlin correspondent of Universal Service, flew from Berlin to Vienna when first word was received of the Nazi putsch in Vienna which resulted in the assassination of Chancellor Dollfuss. Here is his explanation of the present situation in Austria.

By CHARLES L. FLICK

Vienna, July 26.—Twenty years ago, Austria delivered to Serbia the ultimatum which brought about the World War. No sharper comparison can be drawn than to compare the tension existing today after the assassination of Chancellor Dollfuss, with that pre-war atmosphere.

What probably will become the decisive struggle in deciding the fate of Austria began when 144 Nazis, disguised as twins and Heimwehrmen, pounded down upon the government, killed Dollfuss and other cabinet ministers, and until they bargained for freedom after loyal troops surrounded the chancellery.

AUSTRIA UPSIDE DOWN
The Nazi putsch was a daring movement, unparalleled in recent history in Europe, and turned Austria upside down because it struck at the nation's nerve center and paralyzed the entire country for six hours or more. The Nazis were led by former army sergeant Heimwehr.

What will happen within the next 48 hours is problematical, but what ever happens, it will have an important bearing on the course that is to be followed by Austria and all of Europe for the next few years.

Whether Dr. Kurt von Schuschnigg, named "temporary" chief of a provisional government by President Wilhelm Miklas, will prove to be the strong man Austria needs is a question events must decide. One man who will be important in precipitating whatever happens is Major Fey, minister of defense, who is a bitter enemy of Nazism.

It was Major Fey who told Nazi Sergeant Heimwehr: "Get out of the chancellery, I

ENGELBERT DOLFUSS -
Late Chancellor of Austria

the coming days, which may yet result in an Austrian civil war. The population is perplexed, stunned. No one is certain who is his boss—not even the soldiers or the police. Excitement, tension prevail. But the government issued the statement of all governments after the first revolutionary outbreak.

"Order reigns throughout the country. The government is in control."

But the developments which are likely to mean further trouble were:

1.—The fact that Major Fey blamed "Hitler's men" for Dollfuss' assassination, and

2.—The German legion's acting as mediator in guaranteeing safe conduct to Germany for the Nazis who raided the chancellery.

Reports of troop movements on the Italian and Czechoslovakian frontiers of Austria caused some wonderment in Vienna, where it was also heard that Britain is to ask Germany the basis for Nazi interference in Austrian government.

Grave fears were manifest over

THE WORLD WAR OPENED, after the ASSASSINATION OF THE HEIR TO THE AUSTRIAN THRONE, ARCHDUKE FRANZ FERDINAND AND HIS WIFE OF SARAJEVO, BOSNIA.

Thumbnail Sketches of Austrian Chiefs

Outstanding personalities figuring in the latest Austrian upheaval:

ENGELBERT DOLFUSS—Chancellor and dictator against whom the rising wrath of Austrian Nazis was directed. A small man of peasant stock, he became head of the government in May, 1932, after a coalition of his own Christian Socialists and the National Socialists and Agrarians. Last February he suppressed ruthlessly a Socialist insurrection in Vienna.

WILHELM MIKLAS—Statesman whose political career extends back to the old empire. His first political office was that of deputy in the imperial parliament in 1907. He was elected president in 1928. In March, this year, he directed Dollfuss to rule without a parliament.

MAJOR EMIL FEY—Minister without portfolio. A military man of German ancestry, he is a determined opponent of Socialism and Hitlerism.

PRINCE ERNST RUDOLPH VON STARHEMBERG—Fascist leader of the Heimwehr. In recent Austrian history the 33-year-old prince figured as a bitter opponent of Hitler, but lately an impression has grown that he has reached an agreement with the Nazis. Another persistent rumor is that a strong element wishes to make him regent of Austria.

ANTON RINTELN—Austrian minister to Italy. Now on vacation in Austria, Rintel in many circles is regarded a logical successor to Chancellor Dollfuss. Twice he was a member of the cabinet and for a time governor of the Province of Styria.

DR. KURT SCHUSCHNIGG—Foe of Socialists. He has been named acting chancellor. As a cabinet member he has risen in the esteem of Dollfuss, recently having been assigned to the ministry of education as well as justice. He aided in smothering the Socialist revolt and he approved drastic restrictions of liberties of individuals and a throttling of the press to achieve the ends of the government.

HITLER ACTS QUICKLY TO AVOID DOLLFUSS DEATH STIGMA

AMBASSADOR RIETH FIRED; BORDER DOORS CLOSED

Copyright, 1934, By International News Service
Berlin, July 26.—The German government moved swiftly today in an attempt to remove any stigma that might attach to it for the assassination of Chancellor Dollfuss and the terrorist acts of Austrian Nazis in Vienna yesterday.

Only a few hours after Chancellor Hitler had returned hurriedly from Bayreuth, where he was attending a Wagnerian festival, Baron Konstantin von Neurath, foreign minister, sent a telegram of condolence to the Austrian government on behalf of the Reich government.

RAISE NEUTRALITY CRY
Apparently inspired editorially in German papers asserted:
"The German government takes a strictly objective position toward Austria. However, the Germans are inclined to rely in the internal affairs of their neighbors. It shows in the departure of Dr. Rieth from Austria."

It was explained that Rieth accepted the offer of the Austrian government for safe conduct to the border, and that consequently Austria will be treated as neutral. The papers said "rebel" forces made arrangements for Rieth's departure from Vienna and Germany is under no obligation to fulfill these arrangements.

It is said orders had been issued to fire on rebels attempting to reach the frontier.

ENVOY DISMISSED
On arriving at his office, International News Service learned, Hitler immediately and personally dismissed his ambassador to Austria, Rieth, when he learned that the diplomat had been the one who arranged a guarantee of safe-conduct to the German border for the men who captured the Austrian chancellor.

Pope Calls Dollfuss Death 'Criminal Assassination'

By Associated Press
Vatican City, July 26.—Pope Pius expressed deep grief today over the assassination of Chancellor Dollfuss in a telegram to President Wilhelm Miklas of Austria.

The Pope's message said:
"I take the liveliest part in the profound sorrow brought upon you, upon beloved Austria and the whole civilized world by the criminal assassination of Chancellor Dollfuss."

We render homage to the memory of a worthy Christian figure, this most loyal son of the church and this valiant defender of his country.

"And having recommended his noble soul to heaven, we beg from heaven for real peace for Catholic Austria, and in particular to you, we impart our benediction."

Austrian Nazis Warned by German Rabbi in Crisis

By Associated Press
Paris, July 26.—Premier Doumergue issued a warning today to Austrian Nazis, determined to warn them against a resumption of their terrorist activities.

Josef Barthel, foreign minister, was understood to have said the Austrian charge of antisemitism was a "revolt" against a Nazi revolution in Austria.

WATCHES ENGLAND
The outbreak of such a revolt, foreign critics here said, would be a signal for measures in England, Italy and the Little Entente to determine what their measures could be taken.

France, however, has no desire to conduct any new adventure with Austria, and is eagerly watching London's attitude.

Barthel said the Austrian government's program of consideration for the assassination of Chancellor Dollfuss.

Although his law was not immediately operative, it was understood the message issued the positive view of a message to Miklas.

France's foreign minister was alarmed at the situation and expressed his concern. General Violette, French ambassador in Vienna, was also concerned. Germany's usual of connection with the Nazis has been a constant against representations in Berlin.

INTERNAL TROUBLE
Although the government officially ignored yesterday's events, it is believed an internal disturbance by a comparatively small group of Nazis, the French consider a Nazi revolution by strong force automatically he comes an international incident.

Hindenburg Wires His Sorrow to Miklas

Berlin, July 26.—President Paul von Hindenburg, Germany's aged President, today sent the following telegram to President Wilhelm Miklas of Austria:

"I am deeply shaken by the death of Chancellor Dollfuss."

House Praises Dollfuss
By BERNARD J. DORRERY
By International News Service
Washington, July 26.—In the death of Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss of Austria, the world lost one of its greatest leaders in the opinion of Dr. Edward M. House, one of the best-informed Americans on European affairs.

Colonel House, the chief mentor of the Wilson administration and confidant of President Roosevelt, at his summer home here today commented on the passing of Dollfuss with reluctance, stating that he did not want to get involved in the situation.

"You can say this," the Colonel said, after a brief pause. "I considered him as one of the ablest and most useful heads of any government in Europe. His death is a great loss."

The Colonel has just received, among a mass of communications, a telegram from Vittorio E. Orlando, Italian war time premier, congratulating him on his 70th birthday. The former premier was one of the signers of the Versailles treaty.

"Yes," said the quiet little man, "I am 70 today. My health is good and I am celebrating the event quietly here with my family."

He declared that international affairs is still an absorbing topic for him and that in his private capacity he follows events abroad with close attention.

Otto Prepares to Take Crown
By International News Service
Brussels, July 26.—Shocked at the assassination of Chancellor Dollfuss, the young Archduke Otto, claimant to the Austrian throne, convoked officials of his court into session today at the villa outside Brussels where he is living in exile with his mother, the Empress Zita.

TRAMMELL SEES LEAGUE STUDIES RACE FOR ARMS WAR CRISIS

By Associated Press
Washington, July 26.—Senator Trammell (D., Pa.), chairman of the Senate naval committee, expressed doubt today whether the 1935 naval conference would succeed. He based his doubt on conditions in Europe and the attitude of naval officials in Japan.

The session of the Senate naval committee today was devoted to the study of the proposed 1935 naval conference. The committee was informed by the Navy department that the Japanese navy was making a rapid advance in its armament.

Conditions in Europe appear serious. Thus far, apparently little progress has been made toward the 1935 conference. Senator Trammell said that the conference would be a failure if the conference fails, indications are there will be a naval building race after the London conference agreement expires in 1935. I hope, however, it will be successful.

Many Killed When Nazis Battle to Hold Styria

By Associated Press
Graz, Austria, July 26.—Heavy fighting between government troops and Nazis for the possession of cities in the Province of Styria was officially reported today. At least 14 pandares were killed. The office of the province of security, in announcing 14 officers dead and as many wounded, described the situation in Styria, a Nazi stronghold, as serious.

Wolfgang Kappeler and Murek were taken by the army during the night after heavy fighting. But a number of the army were also taken.

CZECHS MASS BORDER TROOPS

ONE GAS AS GOOD AS ANOTHER? ... NOT BY A LONG SHOT!

"I use any brand of gasoline, they're all alike," some people say. But—there's a big difference in gasolines. And to prove it, Gulf submits the results of 15 power tests in which 33 gasolines were tested. Read these facts about gasolines—then do your own choosing!

DOES IT PAY to be picky about the brand of gasoline you put in your tank? It certainly does!

For there's a big difference in gasolines—even though there may be no difference in what they cost per gallon. Gulf has proved that! Here? By actual, show-down power tests on famous American hills.

On 15 tough mountain grades, tests were made of various gasolines. In all, 33 gasolines were tested—including every well-known brand sold in each area where a test was made.

Each gasoline was given the same job—a certain load in pull. The object being to see which could take a car and heavy load furthest up the hill in "high" before the motor stalled.

THE RESULTS of these tests are shown on the chart below—All results certified by a Notary Public. Look at that chart. And look for the "sign of the orange disc" the next time you need gasoline. You'll find—that Gulf GULF gives more power!

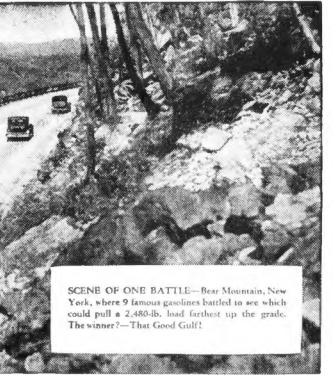

DRIVE IN AND TRY A TANKFUL!

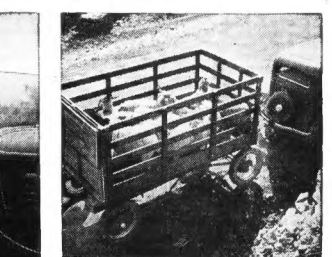

HOW 33 GASOLINES RANKED (IN ALL TESTS TO DATE)

Boston Wing Commander

Greetings! Unlike the little boys in cartoons who are always looking longingly for a hole in the fence at baseball games, the silver and gold wings of the Junior Birdmen were to take them right in to a real National League game between the Cincinnati Reds and the Boston Braves today at 3 p. m. Judge Fuchs was to play host to hundreds of Junior Birdmen and Birdwomen.

The only entrance requirement to this game was to be the showing of silver or gold Junior Birdman wings.

many who have not previously joined are expected to come to the game and get in on the fun.

This game, however, was to be just one of the series of events planned for you. With fair weather ahead and the hot sun shining back, we are ready to take off on our summer activities. Before we head out on the field for our take-off, there is one important announcement that you will all be interested in.

The National Junior Birdmen All America Model Plane Championship Contest, the greatest miniature air race ever proposed, has been postponed until Tuesday, August 28.

Although our model plane design champion, Tully Cap, has already been notified of this change, you members will be interested to know that it means just one thing—more time for our model builder to try and build new models for this great contest.

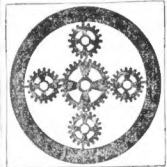

More Preparations for National Meet

While full preparations are under way for this great national activity, which is to be held at Fenway Park, just across the Boston River from the stadium, this postponement will enable us to make even a more complete set-up, which includes a committee of judges representing the most important aviation executives of the government air bureau, a host of the entire group of winged champions and special teams of the city, government buildings and historic points of interest.

The local wing champions will arrive in Washington Sunday evening, August 26, spend Monday at the guests of the city, participate in the contest activities on Tuesday and leave for their respective homes on Wednesday.

And our local champion, we hope, will bring back with him the national championship and the coveted William Randolph Hearst Trophy.

The following are the prizes for 1st Prize—The William Randolph Hearst Trophy for the United States Model Plane Championship and a choice between a $200 scholarship or a three weeks' excursion to several European countries.

2nd Prize—Junior Birdmen National Championship Trophy and Scholarship Award similar to the one for first prize, but not to exceed $100.

3rd Prize—Junior Birdmen National Championship Trophy and Scholarship Award similar to the one for first prize, but not to exceed $50.

4th Prize—Junior Birdmen National Championship Trophy and Scholarship Award similar to the one for first prize, but not to exceed $25.

Many Questions Are Duplicated

Some of the many questions are asking the same questions, we have a room to print all the answers. See our questions, is answered here.

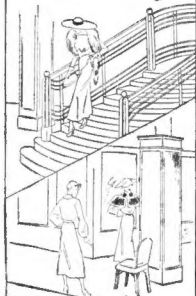

The Junior Birdmen, whose picture appears today in Philip Goodman's column, are the winners of the 1st prize for three years. He has the right to contribute a plane for display at headquarters.

NRA ON 'CARPET' AS BORAH LAYS PLANS FOR PROBE

By GEORGE ROTHWELL BROWN

Washington, July 26—Senator Borah is laying the groundwork for an investigation of NRA next January by a committee of Congress. It is "on the carpet."

That investigation will be the whole framework upon which the House speaker has based his charges that the Blue Eagle is the protector of monopoly.

NRA NOTHING

Cautious as it may seem, Borah's information has come to him directly from within NRA itself, and from other compound parts of the new deal setup. NRA is by no means the harmonious and smooth-working organization which it is generally represented as being. Actually it is anything but that. A good many of the leaders who threw themselves into the economic crusade under the Blue Eagle a year ago have snarled on the well-known hind.

These leaders, for some time past, have found themselves attached to various parts of the NRA machine, which are not functioning and are not likely to function.

The monopolistic tendencies of NRA are fully appreciated within the organization itself. The idealists are quite as worked up about it as Borah.

AIR PROBE OVER

The House bank, which has just finished its task of investigating any aviation, has set a new record of efficiency and economy. The difference between a real fact-finding committee and the empty fishing expedition of the average congressional committee. The House bank investigation cost but $12,500, paid out of army funds, most of which was spent for the transcript of testimony. This amounts to 400 pages, in 12 volumes. It is now in the War Department safe, and will not be published. It contains too much confidential information about the national defense.

The 105 witnesses who appeared before the board paid their own expenses. The only exception was in the case of army officers, who were allowed their travel pay. The expense is moderate compared with the cost of congressional investigations in the last Congress. The committee investigated and reported on the military committee of the House, which was a group of $10,000. The military committee of the House, which was a group of $10,000.

Los Angeles, July 25.—Here's news. I am told that Helen Menken returns to Hollywood to play the lead in "Good Earth" for Irving Thalberg. Helen bought her clothes in Chinatown for the "Good Earth" test and she studied makeup so earnestly that the unanimous opinion of all concerned was that nowhere could there be a better choice for the delectable role of the wife.

Mrs. Menken has gone to New York to settle her affairs after which she will come back to Hollywood for this new event. After a long and successful career in the theatre, she has now turned to the screen. She can look back on a long and successful career in the theatre and on the screen.

Now, she is settling her affairs after which she will come back to Hollywood for this new event. After a long and successful career in the theatre, she has now turned to the screen.

This Is Life by ROBERT E. ROGERS

After all, every time or two years I spend my life in a room and return to my own home, I am thankful my stay at the North Shore is a place where I can relax and there are no more. JIM ORMONT IS WILSON'S BEST

CLASS OF FIELD IN 7TH RACE AT SALE

The Ormont gelding had scant chance to display his true worth in his last outing, and finished fifth behind Grand Ace and that sort. He was forced to race wide after a slow beginning and ran out at the head of the stretch while moving into the lead.

The charts disclose that Jim Ormont was only beaten three lengths for all the money, despite his mischance. Off that race he should stand a world of beating.

Red Ruler Stands on Thin Ice

FIRST RACE
Happy Helen, Sweepstakes, Home Loan.
HAPPY HELEN strikes me as being the class of this shifty field of non-winners. She was well backed against a field of high class players in her last outing and ran a rolling race to finish fifth behind Westy's Duke and that sort. With an alert departure from the gate, she should never leave this issue in doubt. SWEEPSTAKES was favored in this sort of a race last out, but a slow start ruined her chance. HOME LOAN ran an improved race to place the other day and is entitled to a good chance.

SECOND RACE
Gay Banner, Caboose, Merry Chatter.
GAY BANNER is capable of making every pole of this affair a winning one. The Sun Play fully backed her for a similar effort in this to her last outing. However, she was unable to best her studies with All Forster, but she clearly the next best. CABOOSE is burdened with 115 pounds, but he has been racing in a manner that would suggest that he may be hard to down. MERRY CHATTER displayed considerable improvement in her last and must be accorded a good money chance.

THIRD RACE
Kai-Finn, Brown Wisdom, Lehman.
KAI-FINN was up against it in his last outing, but in this he may be disappointed. That was his first start after this course and it was in the nature of a lightener. BROWN WISDOM, an old fellow who is capable of making it all, if he can keep up in the early stages. LEHMAN has raced well in his last two starts.

FOURTH RACE
De Valera, Casterline, Moone Keady.
DE VALERA shapes up as the class of this affair. His last effort may be disregarded. That was his first start after this course and it was in the nature of a lightener. CASTERLINE has all the worst of the weight, but is endowed with a brand of speed that should keep her in the thick of contention throughout. MOONE KEADY is back in the McCann barn and may show improvement.

FIFTH RACE
Kincadorn, Sky Haven, Boorag.
KINCADORN is dropping down and should be able to make this field. The A. J. Pappalardo barn has been racing over her head in recent starts. However, earlier in the meeting she drubbed a field of this caliber. SKY HAVEN displayed considerable improvement to finish third behind Red Point and Hernandez last out. KINCADORN's best effort would be dangerous.

SIXTH RACE
Periodical, Roy Cray, Hasty Peter.
PERIODICAL came out in his last race in a three-quarter dash to be beaten a lip by the Heahan lot. That kind of running would stand a world of beating in this strain. ROY CRAY finished far back in his last. However, that effort was in the nature of a conditioner and may be disregarded. HASTY PETER has a high turn of speed and would be all right if able to negotiate the route at top speed.

SEVENTH RACE
Jim Ormont, Grand Ace, Enzo Jim Ormont.
JIM ORMONT will have to reverse the tables on GRAND ACE in this affair. The sort of the Wanderer finished in front of him in their last outing. He is picking up five pounds additional to date. ENZO JIM's best would be dangerous.
